Versus

Mr. Abhang Malhari Baiju & Anr..Respondents

Mr. P.B. Shah, for the petitioner
Mr. S.D. Tayade, for Respondent No.1.
Mr. R.M. Patil, A.G.P. for the Respodnent Nos. 2 and 3.

CORAM: F.I. REBELLO J.
DATE : 12th January, 2005

P.C.:

. Rule. Heard forthwith. To my mind considering the nature of the enquiry before the School Tribunal the facts as sought to be put on record will be relevant for the purpose of determining the Appeal. In the light of that the impugned order dated 31st August, 2004 is set aside. The amendment is allowed. The petitioners are permitted to carry out the amendment. The respondents if they are so advised will be at liberty to file rejoinder, if any. The School Tribunal then to dispose of the Appeal according to law.

2. Rule made absolute accordingly. No order as to costs.
